A portion of a Message from Bishop Barber to All of the Faithful of the Diocese:

“Our world is in need of renewal. Too many of our brothers and sister are hurting and in need of healing-but too many of us are in turn separated from the very source of our strength: Our Lord Jesus Christ.

“To revive our connection to Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, I am calling for our Diocese to join in the National Eucharistic Revival to reflect upon the centrality of the Eucharist in our lives and to reaffirm our call to be a people nourished, fed, and renewed by the Eucharist itself....

“It is my prayer that as we all reinvigorate our devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and deepen our formation on the Real Presence, we will in turn be inspired to missionary action. Jesus is here and will renew us.

“As part of this Revival, I am calling for a Diocesan Eucharistic Revival Conference in 2023 with the theme: ‘I am with you Always.’

“Save the dates: September 8-9 for the Spanish language track; September 15-16 for the English-language track. More details are forthcoming.

“I know these weekends will be a wonderfully renewing time of prayer, talks, discussion, Mass, Adoration, and a public procession of the Blessed Sacrament....It is time to revive and rekindle the fire of the Eucharist in our hearts.”

Register now for the Diocesan Eucharistic Revival Congress to be held on the dates below:

September 15, 2023 (for Youth)
5pm-11pm; and September 16, 2023 (for Adults)
7am-3pm.

The theme of the Eucharistic Revival is “I Am With You Always.”

Have you offered a Mass Intention lately? The Mass is offered not only for the general intention for the Church, for the ministers and assembly present, but also for a specific intention. The faithful may ask for a regularly scheduled Mass in the Parish to be offered for their particular, personal intention. It can be for themselves, or for their loved ones both living or deceased. If you would like to offer a Mass Intention, drop the Mass Intention envelope in the Parish mailbox; or send us an email; or leave a message in the Parish voicemail.

Intentions are assigned to Masses on a "first come, first served" basis. If the date you requested is already taken, we will assign your Intention to the closest Mass that is still open for Intentions. If you have no particular date in mind, that's also acceptable. The Office will assign your Intention to an available Mass. We can only assign Masses to dates four months ahead and not beyond.

Because we have many requests for Intentions at the 12:30pm Mass on Sundays, the Office may limit the Intentions assigned to this Mass to two Intentions per individual per year.

Bishop's Appeal Update: we have raised $2,250. The goal for the Parish this year is $21,900.

From a sermon by Saint Maximus of Turin, bishop

Christ is risen! He has burst open the gates of hell and let the dead go free; he has renewed the earth through the members of his Church now born again in baptism, and has made it blossom afresh with men brought back to life. His Holy Spirit has unlocked the doors of heaven, which stand wide open to receive those who rise up from the earth. Because of Christ's resurrection the thief ascends to paradise, the bodies of the blessed enter the holy city, and the dead are restored to the company of the living. There is an upward movement in the whole of creation, each element raising itself to something higher. We see hell restoring its victims to the upper regions, earth sending its buried dead to heaven, and heaven presenting the new arrivals to the Lord. In one and the same movement, our Saviour's passion raises men from the depths, lifts them up from the earth, and sets them in the heights.

Christ is risen. His rising brings life to the dead, forgiveness to sinners, and glory to the saints. And so David the prophet summons all creation to join in celebrating the Easter festival: Rejoice and be glad, he cries, on this day which the Lord has made.

The light of Christ is an endless day that knows no night. Christ is this day, says the Apostle; such is the meaning of his words: Night is almost over; day is at hand. He tells us that night is almost over, not that it is about to fall. By this we are meant to understand that the coming of Christ's light puts Satan's darkness to flight, leaving no place for any shadow of sin. His everlasting radiance dispels the dark clouds of the past and checks the hidden growth of vice. The Son is that day to whom the day, which is the Father, communicates the mystery of his divinity. He is the day who says through the mouth of Solomon: I have caused an unfailing light to rise in heaven. And as in heaven no night can follow day, so no sin can overshadow the justice of Christ. The celestial day is perpetually bright and shining with brilliant light; clouds can never darken its skies. In the same way, the light of Christ is eternally glowing with luminous radiance and can never be extinguished by the darkness of sin. This is why John the evangelist says: The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has never been able to overpower it.

And so, my brothers, each of us ought surely to rejoice on this holy day. Let no one, conscious of his sinfulness, withdraw from our common celebration, nor let anyone be kept away from our public prayer by the burden of his guilt. Sinner he may indeed be, but he must not despair of pardon on this day which is so highly privileged; for if a thief could receive the grace of paradise, how could a Christian be refused forgiveness?

CANTATE Dómino cánticum novum, allelúia: quia mirabilia fecit Dóminus, allelúia: ante conspéctum géntium revelávit justítiam suam, allelúia, allelúia, allelúia. Ps. 97. 1. Salvábit sibi dextera ejus: et bráchium sanctum ejus. V. Glória Patri.

Sing ye to the Lord a new canticle, alleluia, for the Lord hath done wonderful things, alleluia: He hath revealed His justice in the sight of the Gentiles, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Ps. His right hand, and His holy arm, hath gotten Him salvation. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT

DEUS, qui fidélium mentes unius éfficis voluntátis, da pópulis tuis id amáre quod præcipis, id desideráre quod promittis: ut inter mundánas varietátes ibi nostra fixa sint corda, ubi vera sunt gáudia. Per Dóminum nostrum.

God, who makest the minds of the faithful to be of one will, grant to Thy people to love that which Thou commandest and desire that which Thou dost promise; that so, among the changing things of this world, our hearts may be set where true joys are to be found. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE James 1, 17-21

CARÍSSIMI: Omne datum óptimum et omne donum perféctum desúr-sum est, descéndens a Patre lúminum, apud quem non est transmutátió, nec vicissitúdinis obumbrátió. Voluntárie enim génuít nos verbo veritátis, ut simus inítium áliquod creatúræ ejus. Scitis, fratres mei dilectíssimi. Sit autem omnis homo velox ad audiéndum: tardus autem ad loquéndum, et tardus ad iram. Ira enim viri justítiam Dei non operáitur. Propter quod abjiciéntes omnem immundítiam et abundántiam malitiæ, in mansuetúdine suscipite ín-situm verbum, quod potest salváre ánimas vestras

Dearly beloved, every best gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change nor shadow of alteration. For of His own will hath He begotten us by the word of truth, that we might be some beginning of His creature. You know, my dearest brethren. And let every man be swift to hear, but slow to speak and slow to anger. For the anger of man worketh not the justice of God. Wherefore, casting away all uncleanness and abundance of naughtiness, with meekness receive the ingrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

PASCHAL ALLELUIA Psalm 117. 16; Romans 6. 9

ALLELÚIA, allelúia. V. Dextera Dómini fecit virtútem: dextera Dómini exaltávit me.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. The right hand of the Lord hath wrought strength, the right hand of the Lord hath exalted me.

ALLELÚIA. V. Christus resúrgens ex mórtuis, jam non móritur: mors illi ultra non dominábitur. Allelúia.

Alleluia. V. Christ, rising again from the dead, dieth now no more: death shall no more have dominion over Him. Alleluia.

GOSPEL John 16. 5-14

IN illo témpore: Dixit Jesus discípulis suis: Vado ad eum, qui misit me: et nemo ex vobis intérogat me: Quo vadis? Sed quia hæc locútus sum vobis, tristítia implévit cor vestrum. Sed ego veritátem dico vobis: expedit vobis ut ego vadam: si enim non abiero, Paráclitus non véniet ad vos: si autem abiero, mittam eum advos. Et cum vénerit ille, arguet mundum de peccáto, et de justítia et de judicio. De peccáto quidem, quia non crediderunt in me: de justítia vero, quia ad Patrem vado, et jam non vidébitis me: de judicio autem, quia princeps hujus mundi jam judicátus est. Adhuc multa hábeo vobis dicere: sed non potéstis portáre modo. Cum autem vénerit ille Spíritus veritátis, docébit vos omnem veritátem. Non enim loquétur a semetípso: sed quæcúmque áudiet, loquétur, et quæ ventúra sunt, annuntiábit vobis. Ille me clarificábit: quia de meo accípiet et annuntiábit vobis.

At that time Jesus said to His disciples: I go to Him that sent Me; and none of you asketh Me: Whither goest Thou? But because I have spoken these things to you, sorrow hath filled your heart. But I tell you the truth: it is expedient to you that I go; for if I go not, the Paraclete will not come to you: but if I go I will send Him to you. And when He is come, He will convince the world of sin, and of justice and of judgment. Of sin, because they believed not in Me; and of justice, because I go to the Father, and you shall see Me no longer; and of judgment, because the prince of this world is already judged. I have yet many things to say to you: but you cannot bear them now. But when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will teach you all truth. For He shall not speak of Himself: but what things soever He shall hear He shall speak, and the things that are to come He shall show you. He shall glorify Me: because He shall receive of Mine and shall show it to you.

OFFERTORY Psalm 65. 1-2, 16

JUBILÁTE Deo, univérsa terra, psalmum dícite nómini ejus: veníte, et audíte, et narrábo vobis, omnes qui tímétis Deum, quanta fecit Dóminus ánimæ meæ, allelúia.

Shout with joy to God, all the earth, sing ye a psalm to His name: come and hear, and I will tell you, all ye that fear God, what great things the Lord hath done for my soul, alleluia.

SECRET

DEUS, qui nos per hujus sacrificii veneránda commércia, unius summæ divinitátis partícipes effecísti: præsta, quæsumus: ut, sicut tuam cognóscimus veritátem, sic eam dig-nis móribus assequámur. Per Dóminum nostrum

O God, who by the sacred intercourse of this sacrifice hast made us partakers of the one supreme divine nature: grant, we beseech Thee, that as we know Thy truth, so we may follow it by a worthy life. Through our Lord.

PREFACE FOR EASTER

VERE dignum et justum est, æquum et salutäre: Te quidem, Dómine, omni témpore, sed in hac potíssimum die gloriósius prædicäre, cum Pascha nostrum immolátus est Christus. Ipse enim verus est Agnus, qui ábstulit peccáta mundi. Qui mortem nostram moriéndó destrúxit, et vitam resurgéndo reparávit. Et ideo cum Angelis et Archángelis, cum Thronis et Dominationibus, cumque omni militía cæléstis exércitus, hymnum glóriæ tuæ cánimus, sine fine dicéntes

It is truly meet and just, right and availing unto salvation, that at all times, but more especially on this day we should extol Thy glory, O Lord, when Christ our Pasch was sacrificed. For He is the true Lamb that hath taken away the sins of the world. Who by dying hath overcome our death, and by rising again hath restored our life. And therefore with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominations, and with all the heavenly hosts, we sing a hymn to Thy glory, saying without ceasing:
