MESSAGE FROM FR. NAGUIT

This weekend the first members of the Parish's Guild of St. Stephen For Altar Servers will be installed. The purpose of the Guild is the sanctification of our altar servers, and to enhance their learning of the liturgy and their service at the altar.

Our Parish Guild is affiliated with the Archconfraternity of St. Stephen For Altar Servers headquartered in Westminster Cathedral in London. The Archconfraternity was founded in 1904 by Fr. Hamilton MacDonald in London. The Guild has grown since its founding, and today parishes and schools not only in the British Commonwealth but including here the U.S. have local chapters of the Guild.

Pray for all of our servers, especially those who will be installed, and that more will join their ranks.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

With great sadness the Diocese announces the passing of Bishop Emeritus John Cummins. He passed away on December 3rd.

Bishop Cummins was the 2nd Bishop of Oakland, installed on January 30, 1977. He served as bishop until his retirement in 2003.

May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

The Parish's St. Vincent DePaul Society is organizing a collection of maternity clothes, baby clothes, diapers, and other items for donation to the Gabriel Project of the Diocese of Oakland.

At the same time, St. Vincent DePaul is also collecting larger-sized diapers, children's clothes, warm clothing for women (eg, sweat suits), umbrellas, and other items for homeless and low-income women and their children.

Please bring these items listed above on the last weekend of December and the first two weekends of January. These items will be stored in a designated location in Kozina Hall.

Are you interested in joining our St. Vincent DePaul Conference or learning more about the Society of St. Vincent DePaul? You may call Bill Duffy at (510) 225-8667 for more information.

Prayer, Formation, and Fraternity for Men: The men of Knights of Columbus Council No. 04840 are excited to share the implementation of Cor, a new formation and fraternal opportunity for the men of St. Margaret Mary's Parish. Cor exists to form and strengthen Catholic men in faith and virtue as missionary disciples by drawing them into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through prayer, formation, and fraternity.

The next Cor meeting will be held on Thursday, at 6pm, February 6th, beginning in the Church. Come join your brother parishioners in prayer, formation and fraternity. If you have additional questions, please reach out to Carlos Gutierrez at Carlos.Gutierrez@kofc.org.

The Parish Library is open on the 2nd Sunday of each month after all Masses. We have an incredible collection of Catholic books, DVDs, and CDs available for lending. If you have items checked out, please return them so they are available to other parishioners. Thank you.

Do you have books to donate OR want to volunteer in the library once a month on the 2nd Sunday after 1 Mass? Contact stmaryhands@gmail.com or call the Parish Office, ext. 201 and leave a message for Lily. More info can also be found at <http://stmargaretmaryoak.org/parish-library/>

Thank you to the volunteers who have come forward to serve luncheon to our guest priests after the Holy Hour each 3rd Friday of the month through May for their morning of recollection. Your generosity is very much appreciated.

If you would like to help someone who is cooking for the priests on the 3rd Friday of each month, we can use your help setting the table, serving, and cleaning. More hands make it go quicker! Please contact Alma Hill at stmpriestlunch@gmail.com or leave a message with the Parish Office.

Have you offered a Mass Intention lately? The Mass is offered not only for the general intention for the Church, for the ministers and assembly present, but also for a specific intention. The faithful may ask for a regularly scheduled Mass in the Parish to be offered for their particular, personal intention. It can be for themselves, or for their loved ones both living or deceased. The Sacrifice of the Mass is the highest form of prayer in the Church and is the propitiatory Sacrifice of Our Lord, and therefore has the power to atone for sins. Historically, Mass Intentions have been offered for the response of the soul of our beloved dead.

If you would like to offer a Mass Intention,

drop the Mass Intention envelope in the Parish mailbox; or send us an email; or leave a message in the Parish voicemail.

Intentions are assigned to Masses on a “first come, first served” basis. If the date you requested is already taken, we will assign your Intention to the closest Mass that is still open for Intentions. If you have no particular date in mind, that’s also acceptable: the Office will assign your Intention to an available Mass.

We can only assign Masses to dates four months ahead and not beyond.

Reminder: As you park your car, leave no valuables inside. We have been receiving reports of car break-ins in the neighborhood. Please exercise caution.

Remember our Seminarians: The second collection on January 11-12, 2025 is for our Diocesan seminarians. Please support our future priests who are in training to serve the Catholic faithful in the East Bay. Your donation supports their education.

Please pray for our seminarians.

Except from the Encyclical Dilexit nos: On the Human & Divine Love of Our Lord Jesus Christ

24. All that we have said has implications for the spiritual life. For example, the theology underlying the Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius Loyola is based on “affection” (affectus). The structure of the Exercises assumes a firm and heartfelt desire to “rearrange” one’s life, a desire that in turn provides the strength and the wherewithal to achieve that goal. The rules and the compositions of place that Ignatius furnishes are in the service of something much more important, namely, the mystery of the human heart. Michel de Certeau shows how the “movements” of which Ignatius speaks are the “inbreaking” of God’s desire and the desire of our own heart amid the orderly progression of the meditations. Something unexpected and hitherto unknown starts to speak in our heart, breaking through our superficial knowledge and calling it into question. This is the start of a new process of “setting our life in order”, beginning with the heart. It is not about intellectual concepts that need to be put into practice in our daily lives, as if affectivity and practice were merely the effects of – and dependent upon – the data of knowledge. [Cf. Michel de Certeau, L’espace du désir ou le «fondement» des Exercices Spirituels: Christus 77 (1973), pp. 118-128].

25. Where the thinking of the philosopher halts, there the heart of the believer presses on in love and adoration, in pleading for forgiveness and in willingness to serve in whatever place the Lord allows us to choose, in order to follow in his footsteps. At that point, we realize that in God’s eyes we are a “Thou”, and for that very reason we can be an “I”. Indeed, only the Lord offers to treat each one of us as a “Thou”, always and forever. Accepting his friendship is a matter of the heart; it is what constitutes us as persons in the fullest sense of that word.

26. Saint Bonaventure tells us that in the end we should not pray for light, but for “raging fire”. [Itinerarium Mentis in Deum, VII, 6] He teaches that, “faith is in the intellect, in such a way as to provoke affection. In this sense, for example, the knowledge that Christ died for us does not remain knowledge, but necessarily becomes affection, love”. [ID., Proemium in I Sent., q. 3] Along the same lines, Saint John Henry Newman took as his motto the phrase Cor ad cor loquitur, since, beyond all our thoughts and ideas, the Lord saves us by speaking to our hearts from his Sacred Heart....

INTROIT Proverbs 23. 24, 25

The father of the Just rejoiceth greatly, let Thy father and Thy mother be joyful, and let her rejoice that bore Thee. Ps. How lovely are Thy tabernacles, O Lord of Hosts; my soul longeth and fainteth for the courts of the Lord. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT

O Lord Jesus Christ, who when Thou wast subject to Mary and Joseph didst sanctify the home life with ineffable virtues: grant that by their assistance, we may be instructed by the example of Thy Holy Family and become partakers of their eternal happiness: Who livest and reignest.

EPISTLE Colossians 3. 12-17

Brethren: Put ye on therefore, as the elect of God, holy, and beloved, the bowels of mercy, benignity, humility, modesty, patience: bearing with one another and forgiving one another if any have a complaint against another. Even as the Lord hath forgiven you, so do you also. But above all these things have charity, which is the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ rejoice in your hearts, wherein also you are called in one body: and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly, in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual canticles, singing in grace in your hearts to God. All whatsoever you do in word or in work, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him.

GRADUAL Psalm 26. 4; 83. 5

One thing I have asked of the Lord, this will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life. V. Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house, O Lord, they shall praise Thee for ever and ever.

ALLELUIA Isaias 45. 15

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Verily, Thou art a hidden God, the God of Israel, the Savior. Alleluia.

GOSPEL Luke 2. 42-52

When Jesus was twelve years old, they going up into Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast, and having fulfilled the days, when they returned, the Child Jesus remained in Jerusalem, and His parents knew it not. And thinking that He was in the company, they came a day's journey, and sought Him among His kinsfolk and acquaintance. And not finding Him, they returned into Jerusalem, seeking Him. And it came to pass that after three days they found Him in the Temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, hearing them and asking them questions. And all that heard Him were astonished at His wisdom and His answers. And seeing Him they wondered. And His mother said to Him: Son, why hast Thou done so to us? Behold Thy father and I have sought Thee sorrowing. And He said to them: How is it that you sought Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father's business? And they understood not the word that He spoke unto them. And He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them. And His mother kept all these words in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and grace with God and men.
